

Iceland Asks Price Of Pact

U.S. May Also Ask Portugal, Italy, To Join

Washington, March 14—(AP)—Iceland's foreign minister called on Secretary of State Acheson today to learn first hand what it would mean for his strategic country to join the Atlantic defense alliance.

Bjarni Benediktsson, foreign minister of the tiny island republic particularly wanted to know about the role that would be assigned Iceland if it joins.

Other top state department officials made plans to invite Italy and Portugal into the growing Atlantic pact as the 11th and 12th recruits, possibly before the week ends.

Talks 40 Minutes
Benediktsson talked with Acheson for 40 minutes. Afterward, he went into conference with Charles E. Bohlen, the state department's Russian expert, and with John D. Hickerson, head of the European affairs division.

Aides said he plans to stay in Washington about three days before returning to Iceland to tell parliament the results of his mission.

A few hours earlier, Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen had personally presented the state department with a list of the military equipment Denmark wants if it links up with the Atlantic bloc, as expected.

Denmark's final decision is expected to influence Iceland's course. Until a few years ago, Iceland was part of Denmark.

Seeks No Promises
In talking with reporters at the state department, Rasmussen made it clear he sought no promises but merely wanted to sound out the United States about his country's military needs.

"I must say the American officials listened very attentively and sympathetically to what we explained," he said.

Rasmussen declined to say anything about it, but it was learned that the amount of arms and the military plans involving Greenland figured greatly in his talks with the state department. It was his third day of conversations since arriving Friday.

The Danish foreign minister outlined his country's defense picture to Assistant Secretary of State Ernest R. Gross, who is in charge of drafting the administration's plan to give American arms and equipment to member countries of the Atlantic alliance.

Gross is drawing up a bill which calls for congress to appropriate from $1,000,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 for arms, ammunition, transport, equipment, quartermaster supplies, aircraft and naval supplies.

Former Detective Indicted On Charge Of Fleeing Custody

New York, March 14—(AP)—A former detective, said to have his car bent toward the innermost secrets of New York's City Hall, was indicted today on a charge of breaking from custody during a wire-tapping probe.

Later the ex-detective, Kenneth Ryan, 45, formally was accused in a separate count of tapping the telephone wire of Borough President Hugo E. Rogers, a Tammany leader, March 3.

A grand jury indicted Ryan just after he ended a two-day police search by giving himself up. He was accused of fleeing custody after arrest on a felony charge.

Ryan broke from the City Hall Saturday through a washroom window while being questioned about the wire tapping charges.

He also was booked separately on a wire tapping complaint signed by Mrs. Rogers.

Ryan pleaded innocent in general sessions court to the escape charge and was held under $750 bond.

Take Confederate Flags Into Senate

Washington, March 14—(AP)—Two girls carried Confederate flags into the Senate gallery tonight.

They attracted more attention than the filibuster or the floor below.

The girls identified themselves as Mary Alice Newton of Danville, Va., and Elizabeth La. Fromboise of Rolla, N. D. Both said they were employed in the office of Senator Lodge (R-Mass).

The Senate doorkeeper, who noticed the flags as the girls entered, stood by to see that they were not unfurled.

WINS $15,000 IN 'MR. HEARTBEAT' CONTEST

Chicago, March 14—(AP)—A Chicago housewife won $15,000 in merchandise prizes today by identifying "Mr. Heartbeat."

Mrs. Marjorie W. Smith, 26, won the contest conducted by Radio Station WGN in cooperation with the Chicago Heart association's 1949 campaign for funds. She identified Major Lenox R. Lohr, president of the Museum of Science and Industry, as "Mr. Heartbeat."

Costes States He Duped Nazis While Working For Allies

Paris, March 14—(AP)—Dieudonne Costes, pioneer trans-Atlantic airman, testified today that he "fooled" the Germans and helped the Allies while he was connected with both the German and American espionage services in World War II.

He is being tried by a French military court on charge of intelligence with the enemy. Such a charge carries a possible death penalty upon conviction. However, observers in Paris expressed doubt that a death sentence would be imposed even if Costes is found guilty.

The 57-year-old defendant termed the accusations against him "entirely false." Under close questioning he told his red-headed judge:

"I never had any intention of betraying my country."

Russians Claim Bell Didn't Invent First Telephone

London, March 14—(AP)—The name of the man who really invented the telephone, according to the Soviet news agency Tass, is Pavel Schilling, not Alexander Graham Bell.

Tass, reporting on a scientific meeting in Leningrad, said Schilling contrived his telephone in Russia in 1832, 44 years before Bell put his together in the United States.

Schilling also was credited with inventing the first submarine cable and with devising the first system for stringing telegraph wires on poles.

Soviet science previously had claimed, among other things, the invention of the airplane, the radio, the electric light, the parachute, the transformer and discovery of penicillin and the electrical nature of lightning.

Drinking Of Soft Drink Reveals Mouse In Bottle

Chicago, March 14—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Jane Hannan says she was sipping a soft drink out of a bottle and felt something soft against her lips—a mouse. For this she wants $20,000.

Mrs. Hannan filed two suits for the money today against the Coca-Cola Bottling company of Chicago. One was filed in Circuit Court in behalf of her son by a previous marriage, Terry Jones, 4. She filed the other in Superior Court.

Terry drank part of the beverage and Mrs. Hannan started to finish it when she saw the mouse in the bottle, her suit said.

Officials of the Coca-Cola Bottling company of Chicago were not available for comment.

Mother Keeps Illegitimate Son Imprisoned Ten Years

Boston, March 14—(AP)—Ragged and round-eyed, a 14-year-old "wild boy" saw today a sunlit world from which police said his mother locked him away for 10 years to hide her "secret sin."

Skinny Gerald Sullivan, his matted hair below his shoulders, was dressed in the tatters of two girls' dresses when police found him playing in the street. He was barefooted.

Everything filled him with wonder. He was, police said, "like a wild animal." He saw for the first time an orange, an apple, a cat.

Out of the child's escape came a fantastic tale of a 45-year-old woman's long and careful guarding of her secret from the world and her three other children. The mother was quoted as saying: "I hoped to keep it a secret so it wouldn't bring disgrace to the others."

Police Capt. Francis W. Russell said Mrs. Anne F. Sullivan told him the boy was illegitimate. She pleaded guilty to neglect of the child and was held in $2,000 for hearing Wednesday.

The captain told this story: From the time of Gerald's birth, and until he was four he was boarded out with a family. His father paid sky-

Filibuster Will Not Be Broken

Compromise Fails; Demos Quit Trying

Washington, March 14—(AP)—John L. Lewis' protest strike of 471,000 coal miners boomeranged today as a senate committee approved, 10 to 1, the nomination of Dr. James Boyd to be Bureau of Mines director.

The committee acted even as soft and hard coal operators east of the Mississippi started a two-week holiday, called by Lewis.

Boyd is bitterly opposed by Lewis, and until today the nomination had been lying dormant on Capitol Hill for almost two years.

Although many regard the walk-out as a maneuver to cut coal stockpiles and thus improve Lewis' bargaining position in forthcoming contract talks, Lewis has labeled it a protest over the Boyd appointment.

He objects that Boyd, former dean of the Colorado School of Mines, never worked in a coal mine. Besides voting favorably on President Truman's nomination of Boyd, the Senate Interior committee side-tracked a move to strip the task of regulating mine safety from Boyd's bureau. Boyd has been serving in the post almost two years, most of the time without pay because the senate has not yet confirmed him.

Mt. Vernon Mayor Refuses To Run For Re-Election

Mt. Vernon, Ill.,—(AP)—Mayor Harry L. Bishop resigned today as Republican candidate for re-election. In a paid advertisement in the Mt. Vernon Register News he said the St. Louis Post-Dispatch "by implication" had placed him in such a position that "I fear I cannot be of full service to my party that gave me its nomination for mayor."

Last Friday the St. Louis newspaper reported there was open gambling in Mt. Vernon and that Bishop was supported by gambling interests in the primary election.

The mayor said "I feel that the welfare of the people of Mt. Vernon and the interest of the Republican party is greater than my personal ambition to be re-elected mayor."

Then he called on the G.O.P. to choose another candidate.

Impose Censorship On Pictures Taken In Truman's Area

Key West, Fla., March 14—(AP)—The White House imposed censorship today on air views of President Truman's vacation headquarters, including pictures of the chief executive in swimming. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross attributed the action to "security" reasons.

Ross confiscated films of Tom Craven, Paramount news cameraman, and Joe Vadala, representing NBC television news.

Still photographers Byron H. Rollins of the Associated Press, Milton Freier of Aome news pictures and Al Muto of International news photos destroyed their films rather than submit to censorship.

Later, Ross told at a news conference he "requested" the pictures not be used because he considered them "a completely unauthorized invasion of the president's privacy," as well as for security reasons.

Reporters pressed for an explanation of the security angle. Ross said he meant pictures showing the exact location of the president's beach. He said he approached the security angle from the point of view of the secret service which guards the life of the president.

CHICAGO TAX ASSESSMENTS
Chicago, March 14—(AP)—Chicago's 1948 real estate tax rate was announced today as $3.166 for each $100 of assessed valuation.

County Clerk Michael J. Flynn said the rate was one of the highest in history. The 1947 rate was $2.872.

Asks Greater Tax Controls Be Given Cities, Counties

Springfield, Ill., March 14—The Illinois revenue laws commission today recommended that cities and counties be given greater control over their property tax rates.

It proposed that local governing bodies, by a two-thirds vote of its members, be allowed to increase tax ceilings by 33 percent.

If voters desired, they could petition for a referendum to register disapproval of the boost. This procedure is commonly known as the back door referendum.

School districts and the Cook county units are excluded from the commission's recommendations.

At present, the legislature by its formula fixing purposes puts a lid on most tax rates. City councils, for instance, can't exceed the prescribed limits without referendum approval.

The commission urged that voters be authorized to increase the limits by a referendum initiated either by the governing body or the people themselves. The total increase would be restricted to twice the basic maximum rate.

The commission said it is considering a new method for setting basic

15 INJURED IN RIOTS IN NAPLES, ITALY

Rome, March 14—(AP)—Fifteen persons were injured today in rioting led by leftists in Naples demonstrating against the proposed North Atlantic pact.

This was the second outburst of violence in Italy since Premier Alcide De Gasperi announced Friday he wants parliamentary authority to join the defense alliance. Rome had a similar flareup Saturday.

Court To Decide If Segregation Violates Rights

Washington, March 14—(AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether segregation violates the basic rights of a Negro.

It will review the contention of a Baltimore Negro that "inequality invariably accompanies segregation."

The action comes at a time when a filibuster is raging in the Senate as part of a southern effort to forestall any administration effort to push civil rights bills, or anti-discrimination bills, through.

The decision the high court will review was handed down by a special three-judge federal district court in Baltimore involving a damage suit filed by Elmer W. Henderson in 1942.

That court upheld two to one, a policy adopted by southern railroads of setting aside for Negroes a table or two in a restaurant or partitioned section at the kitchen end of dining cars.

Give More Duties To Labor, Interior Depts.—Hoover

Washington, March 14—(AP)—The Hoover commission favors giving important new duties to the labor and interior departments.

It proposed to congress today that labor take over selective service and the employment service.

An informed source said it is preparing a report which recommends that the great civilian rivers and harbors program of the army engineers be turned over to the interior department. Interior would be responsible for all federal public works and the nation's natural resources.

The labor recommendations urged that this department be built up for efficiency. It did not agree with the 80th Congress in stripping away many functions.

The commission is a non-partisan body headed by former President Hoover. It is studying government reorganization plans for congress to consider.

Admits Bill Taxing All Single Women In Alaska Is Joke

Juneau, Alaska, March 14—(AP)—A proposal to tax all single women was all a jest, Rep. Bill Egan admitted today.

Egan, a married man, ran up the white flag on the bill he introduced in the territorial legislature for a $50 tax on single women. He had said it was to further the happy state of marriage, and relieve the housing shortage.

Egan displayed letters of protest from Seattle, Detroit and even Newburgh, N.Y. The Newburgh man declared the measure as "most preposterous," and added, "I certainly don't see, sir, that you were joking."

Egan says he was.

Drunk Can't Trade Cop's Glasses For Glass Of Whisky

Peoria, Ill., March 14—(AP)—Policeman Perry Combs today learned that the hand is quicker than the eye. For administering the lesson, however, Kenneth McDonald, 35, a transient, drew six months at the state penal farm at Vandalia.

Combs took McDonald, arrested yesterday on a charge of intoxication, before Police Magistrate Charles Scofield today. There McDonald signed a waiver whereby he promised to leave town. Whereby he signed papers, Combs lay the glasses on a table. When McDonald left, so did the glasses.

Two hours later, McDonald was back in jail-intoxicated again. As he was led to a cell, he tossed something behind a radiator. It was Combs' glasses. Combs retrieved them, undamaged, and led McDonald before Magistrate Scofield again. Scofield sentenced McDonald to six months for vagrancy.

McDonald said he had tried to vainly to exchange the glasses for a shot of whisky.

JEAN ARTHUR WINS DIVORCE FROM HUBBY

Santa Monica, Calif., March 14—(AP)—Actress Jean Arthur won an uncontested divorce from producer Frank Ross Jr., today on the strength of her deposition listing numerous alleged cruelties.

Her attorney, George M. Breslin, told Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes that his client was unable to appear because of a nervous condition which kept her under the care of two doctors in New York.

Says Higher Postal Rates Will Drive Papers From Mails

Washington, March 14—(AP)—The newspaper publishing industry said today proposed sharp increases in publication mail rates would be prohibitive and dangerous.

Newspaper and magazine spokesmen asserted that higher rates proposed by the postoffice department if put into law, "would drive every newspaper from the mails, except government publications carried free."

Representatives of newspapers and religious publications appeared before the House postoffice committee.

Postmaster General Donaldson asked congress for a boost of at least $125,000,000 a year in second class mail charges to help defray a contemplated half billion dollar department deficit this year.

This represents an estimated minimum increase of about 300 percent on newspaper mail costs, and 400 to 700 percent in the case of some religious publications.

Short Work-Week In Store For Half Of R.R. Employees

Chicago, March 14—(AP)—A new shorter work-week contract giving nearly half of the nation's 1,000,000 non-operating railroad employees week-ends off was all but complete tonight.

There are still wrinkles to be ironed out when management and union committees meet at 1:30 p.m. (CST) tomorrow. But, a railroad spokesman said, "the broad issues of applying the 40-hour week have been agreed upon and only minor details have to be settled."

The present work week is 48 hours. Carriers and unions have agreed to the 40-hour week with no cut in pay, to become effective Sept. 1 this year. Also agreed to was a seven cent hourly wage increase retroactive to Oct. 1, 1948.

The new contract is being written in conformance with recommendations made by a presidential fact-finding board headed by Dr. William M. Leiserson. The panel was called in twice by the negotiators after making its report to President Truman Dec. 17.

ARMY-NAVY PUBLISHER DIES

Washington, March 14—(AP)—Col. John Callan O'Laughlin, 76, publisher of the Army and Navy Journal, and assistant secretary of state under President Theodore Roosevelt, died tonight.

He had been critically ill at Walter Reed army general hospital since early January.

ENDS CLOTHING RATIONING

London, March 14—(AP)—Harold Wilson, president of the board of trade, announced today the complete ending of clothes rationing in Britain.

Beginning tomorrow Britons may buy all their clothes without coupons for the first time since Jan. 1, 1940.

Grain Sorghums' Support Price Set At 70% Of Parity

Washington, March 14—(AP)—The agriculture department announced today that it will support producer prices of 1949-crop grain sorghums at 70 percent of parity.

This compares with a support rate of 77 percent of parity for the 1948 crop.

Parity is a legal standard for measuring farm prices, designed to be equally fair to farmers and non-farmers. The figure varies with the rise and fall in prices of things farmers buy.

The actual support in terms of dollars and cents will be announced later to reflect 70 percent of the parity price as of April 15. Last year, the support rate averaged $2.31 a hundred pounds.

About 25,000,000 bushels of the 1948 crop have been put under the price support program.

471,000 Coal Miners Idle

Industries Begin Using Stockpiles

Pittsburgh, March 14—(AP)—The coal industry's 20th major work stoppage since 1919 today cut production to a mere trickle.

Coal dependent industries began living off their "fat"—the big stockpiles garnered during the current mild eastern winter. More than 62,000 railroads were forced into idleness.

Pittsburgh, March 14—(AP)—Here's the coal mine shutdown at a glance:

Miners idle: 471,000.
Idle in railroads: 62,700.
Two week production loss: 20,000,000 tons.
Total value of lost tonnage: $100,000,000.

Two-week estimated wage loss to miners: $60,000,000.
Loss to miners' welfare fund (20 cents a ton): $4,000,000.

About 471,000 hard and soft coal miners stayed home to observe a two-week shutdown called by UMW President John L. Lewis. The miners' boss ordered all diggers east as a memorial to dead and injured miners.

Protest Boy Appointment
Lewis also wished to protest the UMW's opposition to the appointment of Dr. James Boyd, as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines. Lewis called him unqualified. The Senate interior committee today approved his appointment.

Only about 32,000 miners remained at work in western states, where Lewis made an exemption in his "stop work" order. He said the severe winter there made continued production necessary.

Another 17,000 miners in Illinois were busy in the pits. They belong to the Progressive Mine Workers, an independent union.

In Pennsylvania and West Virginia, a few coal stripping operations were working but the output of those non-union workers is insignificant.

Railroads Hit Hard
The coal-hauling railroads felt the pinch of the mine shutdown quickest. Temporarily furloughed—or on orders to be laid off soon—were more than 62,000 members of train crews or shop workers. The Virginia railway was the latest to announce furloughs. That line said 2,000 of 3,800 employees would be idle later this week.

The idle miners and railroaders swelled to about 3,742,000 the total number of employed persons in the nation from all causes. Before the mine shutdown began, the government had reported 3,200,000 were jobless in the United States.

Miners in Pennsylvania and Illinois were leading a fight to obtain state unemployment compensation benefits. President John Busarello of UMW District 5 said at Pittsburgh he thought his men would qualify.

But A. J. Caruso, head of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Employment and Unemployment Compensation, said:

"I'd say they weren't eligible. The law says only those who are involuntarily unemployed shall be awarded the benefits."

There was no official reaction from Illinois officials.

At Indianapolis, Director E. E. Gardner of the state employment security division declared: "The present disposition is to deny miners unemployment compensation."

FEATURED IN SENIOR CLASS PLAY AT J.H.S.

On Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25, the senior class of Jacksonville High school will present a three-act comedy entitled "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," an amusing story of a venture abroad by two flappers, Emily Kimbrough and Cornelia Otis Skinner. Mary Elledge and Mary Helen Potter have the leading roles. Tickets for the play, which will be given at eight o'clock each evening, may be obtained by calling 1701. The play is under the direction of Miss Fergene Goddin.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES INQUIRY MAY DEFINE CHARGE OF DISLOYALTY

The question of just what constitutes disloyalty in a government employee is finally going to be asked, and perhaps answered, in a federal court. Twenty-six Post Office workers now under investigation—eight of whom have been suspended—are challenging the loyalty program's constitutionality in a suit against the attorney general, postmaster general chairman of the Loyalty Review Board and other government officials.

This test is as right as it was inevitable, for the question is not only important but decidedly ticklish. Government loyalty investigations are not legal trials, of course. A finding of disloyalty carries no legal penalties. Yet there are penalties, as one may easily imagine.

A person discharged for disloyalty is under a severe economic handicap, even though the charges against him are found to warrant no more serious action than dismissal. For when this person applies for another job his past employment record carries the stigma of disloyalty. That black mark might not prevent him from ever finding work, but it would certainly limit his choice of employment and, in all likelihood, his earning power.

In short the stigma of dismissal might be as much of a burden as a prison record. Whether this is a just desert for a person judged disloyal but not traitorous is now a matter of personal opinion. But certainly it suggests a need for great care, scrupulous fairness and sound proof in an investigation which leads to that judgment.

Seth W. Richardson, the Loyalty Review Board chairman, showed a commendable awareness of those responsibilities when he took his position two years ago. His statement of policy gave assurance that it was at least his administrative purpose to see that safeguards were at hand and rights were respected. Whether this policy has always been observed at lower levels of operation remains to be seen.

The 26 plaintiffs say that they are victims of discrimination. They cite the fact that 12 of their number are Negroes and eight are Jews. Whether or not this charge is true will be brought out, we trust, at their trial.

But fairness of intent and action is not the basis of the suit. The 26 plaintiffs charge that the loyalty program violates the First, Fifth, Ninth and Tenth Amendments to the Constitution. These have to do with guarantees of free thought, speech, assembly and association, and with other rights not enumerated or delegated to the federal government by the Constitution.

The implications of the suit go beyond the fate of these 26 men and beyond the question of how dangerous to the government their alleged disloyalty makes them in the handling and carrying of mail. It is going to be necessary to explore the borderline territory of "liberal" thinking, leftist sympathies, innocent or knowing membership in "front" organizations, and actual espousal of communism. It is going to be necessary to make some sort of distinction and definition that will hold water.

All this in turn is part of the bigger and still unresolved question: Should membership in the Communist Party be made illegal? Our federal laws do not say that it should. But many actions of our federal government imply that such membership is illegal. The pertinent facts are all in. But the application of those facts is too often left to the discretion of the authority of the moment. Perhaps the decision in this case of the 26 postmen will help to point a way out of the present confused situation.

Leftover mashed potatoes may be spread over a baking dish and hollows made in which eggs can be dropped; bake in a modern oven until the eggs are firm and the potatoes thoroughly heated, then garnish with paprika and parsley before serving.

Very the usual baking power biscuit recipe by adding a half cup of cut raisins to the dry ingredients before the milk is added. Cut the dough in scones shape and sprinkle with granulated sugar.

Next time you make a tapioca cream pudding vary it by adding some sliced softened or cooked figs. The grated rind of a lemon may also be added to the pudding for flavor.

John Nobody Takes A Vacation From Heaven

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—In 1897 an obscure farmer named John Nobody was kicked to death by a mule in the vicinity of Peculiar, Mo.

Having led a fairly reasonable life without cheating anyone—this was before the days when a man filled out an income tax blank—John went to heaven.

He quickly rose to the third assistant harp from the left in the heavenly symphony orchestra. But John's heart wasn't in his harp. He was homesick for earth, because he had left it too suddenly.

So he pulled all the strings he could—and they weren't all on his harp—and made this plea:

He Gets His Vacation
"Gimme a two-week vacation from Heaven, and then I'll come back and strum my harp forever and be content. But right now I'm still a powerful lonesome man."

Well, he had a good straw boss. The man said, scratching himself under the wing:
"John, you rustle that harp good as anybody. But a lonesome man don't make group music. Go back and take your look-see, and we'll keep your job here open."

Well, Mr Nobody finally got his celestial passport okayed and plumed down toward Missouri.

Who-o-o-o-m! Swish-h-h-h! An Army B-36 zooming around the world with a load of gummy bombs whipped through his long white robe, cutting it in half.

Lands On Old Farm
"Biggest darn bird I ever saw," whistled John. "Lucky for me he didn't have his beak open."

He landed on his old farm. Motor cars were zipping past on the highway that used to be a dirt road. Right away old John began to be a little homesick for his harp. He didn't know what a motor car was.

Along came his grandson riding on a tractor instead of following a mule. The tractor halted.

"Whot," said the grandson, amazed. "Whurr yuh from, old man?"

"From Heaven," said John. Then as his grandson hesitated, John added testily:
"Don't you believe in Heaven?"

"Can't say as I don't," said his grandson cautiously. "It's anywhere near Washington? We been hearing more from there lately."

Missus Has Another Complex
The young man took John to home and apologized because his missus wasn't there.

"Went into Kansas City to see the psychiatrist," he explained shyly. "She got another complex last week—just before harvest, too."

Old John picked up a newspaper carrying big black headline: "War looms."

"Spain still acting up in Cuba?" he said. "Were going to have to whip her yet."

"Spain?" said the grandson. "Where you been, old man? We whipped Spain long ago. We been through Germany twice since then, and Japan, too. Now Russia's acting up."

"Russia?" said John. "Law! Where's that?"

Through Three Big Wars
The grandson explained, interrupting his story only once—long enough to go down and pick up a government check from the rural postman.

"You mean we been through three big wars in the last 50 years and are looking forward to another?" said old John incredulously.

"Possibly, possibly," said the grandson.

Old John walked out into the fields. He hitch-hiked a ride on the next big cloud that floated by. When he got back to Heaven all the angels said:

"You sure got a nice tan on your vacation, John. What was it like?"

But the old man just shook his head and said nothing. They say that after that, as his gnarled hands swept across his harp in the celestial choir, John Nobody always looked up. He never glanced earthward again.

Sour cream may be flavored with salt, sugar, and lemon juice and served as a dressing for fruit salad. Orange, grapefruit, and banana slices on romaine or watercress makes a particularly good salad for this dressing; sprinkle the banana slices with a little of that citrus juice to keep them from turning color.

A delicious dressing for seafood is prepared from thick sour cream to which chili sauce, minced green pepper and pimiento are added. Serve with shrimp or crabmeat.

Alice Sims Becomes Bride Of John Wilber

Couple Exchange Vows In Pretty Home Ceremony

In a pretty wedding ceremony which took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Sims, 228 West Beecher avenue, their daughter, Miss Alice R. Sims, became the bride of John Robert Wilber, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilber of Woodson.

The single-ring rites were performed by the bride's brother, the Rev. Glen H. Sims, before an improvised altar of ferns and pink and white gladioli. Preceding the ceremony, recorded wedding music was played.

The attendants were Miss Marjorie Murphy and James Wilber, brother of the bridegroom. The ceremony was also witnessed by members of the immediate families.

Grey Worn By Bride

A pearl grey suit with matching accessories was worn by the bride. The ensemble was complemented with an orchid corsage.

The maid of honor was attired in a tweed suit, with which she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. Both mothers wore afternoon dresses and corsages of red rosebuds.

Following the service, a reception was held for invited friends and guests. The bridal table was centered with a silver bowl of pink and white flowers and held a large three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Mary Alstrom and Mrs. Glen H. Sims, presided at the table. The guests were registered by Miss Jeris Ann Bates.

Guests were present from Grant Park, Palmyra, Mo., Springfield, Peoria, Lincoln and Mansfield, Ohio. To Reside In St. Louis

After March 17 the couple will be at home at 1417 Semple avenue, St. Louis, 12, Mo. In the past few weeks, the bride has been guest of honor at a number of showers. Mrs. Clarence Mackey and Miss Stella Doolin entertained on Feb. 28; Mrs. Harry Murphy and daughter, Marjorie, on Feb. 12; and Mrs. Glen H. Sims on March 9.

'SHOESHINE' TO CLOSE FOREIGN FILM SERIES

Wednesday night will bring to a close the showing of several foreign films which have been presented at the Majestic theatre during the past season. The last picture to be shown in this series is an Italian production, "Shoeshine." This particular film was originally scheduled to be shown in January, but the print was accidentally sent to Jacksonville, Fla., and is being brought back to be shown today and Wednesday. Holders of season tickets are reminded that they may use the book cover to obtain their tickets providing they have exhausted their supply of the coupons.

Youth Injured, Others Shaken Up In Wreck

Melvin Wohlers, 18, residing on Jacksonville rural route 6, was injured late Sunday afternoon and several other persons experienced a narrow escape in an automobile collision on a gravel highway several miles northeast of this city.

Wohlers is under treatment at Our Saviour's hospital for lacerations on his face and head, and possible injuries to the chest. His condition is not believed to be serious.

He was in a 1947 Plymouth four door sedan, in company with his brother, Ralph Wohlers and Maurice Willner. They were traveling east when the collision occurred at a point about two miles east of the Baldwin corner.

According to reports at the scene of the accident, the Wohlers car traveled over the crown of a hill and struck the rear of a 1932 Chevrolet, which was backing up the hill. In the Chevrolet were Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Adams and small son, Leroy.

Thrown Out Of Car

Mr. Adams, who is an employee of Barr's laundry, and his son are reported to have been thrown completely out of their car.

The Wohlers car overturned after the impact.

Maurice Willner, riding with the Wohlers brothers, also was taken to Our Saviour's hospital for emergency treatment. He sustained a bruised right knee and scratches, but was able to leave the hospital.

Although badly shaken up, members of the Adams family did not go to the hospital.

Sheriff Ralph Bourn went to the place where the accident occurred, and rendered assistance. The accident took place about 5 p.m.

The Wohlers car, badly damaged in front, was towed to the Lukeman garage, and the Adams car, also badly damaged, was taken to the Brummett garage.

The Adams family had gone into the country to look at a vacant house on a farm which had changed ownership recently. The Adams car was backing toward a driveway at the time of the collision.

$126,527 In Gas Taxes Credited To This County

Morgan county and the municipality of Jacksonville received $126,527 in allotments from Illinois state gasoline taxes in 1948, compared with $110,295 in 1947, according to a statistical analysis prepared by Barcus, Kindred & Company of Chicago, specialists in Illinois municipal bonds. This was an increase of $16,232.

Gas tax allotment payments to all Illinois counties and towns reached a record peak in 1948. Statewide distributions totaled $30,384,862, compared with $27,334,374 in 1947, the previous high year. This was a gain of $3,050,488.

Morgan county's share of 1948 allotments distributed locally by the state was $77,719, a gain of $10,883. Jacksonville received $48,808 an increase of $5,349.

Discussing the outlook for 1949, a statement by Barcus, Kindred & Company says:

"Revenues to Illinois counties and towns from allotment payments should show further increases during 1949, if the present rate of gain in car usage and new car registrations continues. Such funds would be further augmented if the proposal to increase gas taxes from 3 to 5 cents per gallon becomes law. Money received by allotments is an important revenue source to communities receiving it. It helps pay the cost of street and highway repairs."

Paintings By Guy Shown At Decatur

Paintings by James E. Guy, director of the art department of MacMurray College, are being exhibited by the Decatur Art Association during the month of March. They were exhibited in February at the Eastern Illinois State College in Charleston. These paintings include those shown in November and December of last year.

One of Mr. Guy's watercolors, "Manhattan," won second prize at an exhibition of the works of Illinois artists shown by the Decatur Association, and one of his oil paintings received honorable mention.

ANCIENT BUSINESS MACHINE DOES THE JOB

Sydney, Australia.—(AP)—By Using an abacus a Sydney clerk can answer in less than 20 seconds a question like what is 131 percent of $262.46.

An abacus is a counting frame with color beads strung on wires. It was used by the Babylonians, Egyptians, Greeks and Romans and still is used in China. The Sydney clerk, Mr. C. T. Browne, uses the abacus at his job and claims it reduces his work considerably.

In a test he multiplied two four-figure numbers by each other and checked the answer twice before another clerk, skilled in arithmetic, could get the answer once.

Burial Services At Glasgow For Former Resident

Glasgow—The remains of the late Toler Birdsell Mitchell, 69 year old retired Fulton county farmer, and former Glasgow community resident, who died at his home in Vermont, Ill., Thursday, were brought here for burial in the Glasgow cemetery Saturday afternoon, following funeral services at 1 p. m. at the Cline Funeral Home in Beardstown.

The deceased was the son of the late Alphonso and Rebecca Jane Harding Mitchell and was born at Browning on Nov. 24, 1880. He farmed until four years ago, when he came here with his parents and family and resided for several years at the old Northrop place, near the Sugar Grove school, northwest of Glasgow.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ruth Cook, and a brother, Albert Mitchell, both of Decatur, and several nieces and nephews.

Four Suffer Injuries In South Main Wreck

Four members of a Peoria family were injured Sunday night in an automobile and truck collision at South Main and Chamber streets in this city.

The injured are Henry Glowacki, his wife, Laverna, and two small daughters, all residing at 216 Eekley street, Peoria. They were riding in a 1946 Ford panel truck belonging to Tobin Brothers, Inc., of Peoria.

The three occupants of a 1946 Chevrolet convertible driven by Velma Hogg, 1227 South East street, did not require hospitalization.

According to information furnished to the police department, Velma Hogg was driving south on Main street, in a car owned by James Keller, 1407 West West street, and accompanied by Ruth Keller of the same address.

Another car passed the Chevrolet, according to the police report, and Miss Hogg pulled to the right. Then noticing a car ahead parked close to the curb, she swerved sharply to the left when near the Chambers street intersection.

At this point the southbound automobile and truck driven by the Peoria man, which was traveling north, collided.

Ambulance Goes to Scene
A number of officers and citizens gathered at the scene to render assistance. Mrs. Glowacki and daughters were taken to Our Saviour's hospital in Cooney's ambulance. Glowacki and his son Michael were taken to the hospital in a car.

Mrs. Glowacki, the most seriously injured, sustained three deep cuts on her forehead. Several stitches were required to close the wounds.

Kathlena Glowacki, seven years old, suffered a cut near her right eye. Judy Glowacki, five years old, was treated for cuts on her forehead, and her father, Henry, had a cut on his lower lip. The boy, Michael, was not injured.

The wreck victims were treated by Dr. Paul Garrison of Winchester who was at the hospital when they were taken there. Both vehicles were taken to the Lukeman garage.

Officers who took charge of traffic and assisted victims included Captain Flynn, Sergeant Spreen and State Patrolman Keller.

Last Rites For Mrs. Thomason Are Held Sunday

Funeral rites for Mrs. Phoebe T. A. Thomason were held Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the Gilham Funeral Home, with Dr. Sidney A. Guthrie and the Rev. W. Brook Martin officiating.

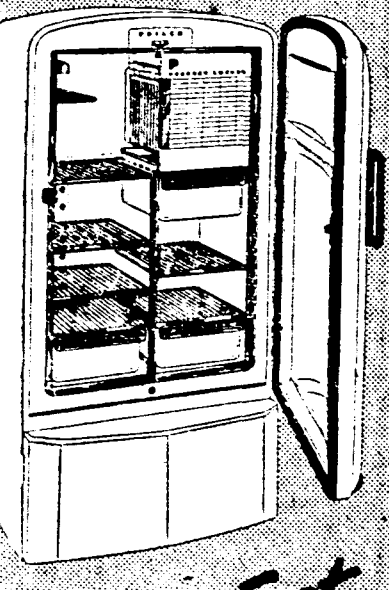

Mrs. Lois Hardin sang "Sometime We'll Understand," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. R. W. Hutchison.

The numerous floral tributes were cared for by Miss Ada Rahe, Mrs. Paul Davidmeyer, Mrs. John Murray, Mrs. Fred Killam, Mrs. T. O. Coultas, Mrs. Wendell Brackett, Mrs. Daniel Dietrick, Mrs. E. A. Sawtelle and Mrs. Clarence Jewsbury.

The pallbearers were Ben Cully, Byron Stewart, Ross Long, Henry DePrates, Wilbur Williams, E. H. Garlich, Harold Joy and Harry Armstrong.

Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Roodhouse—Mrs. Cloyd Sawyer, Mrs. W. J. Reilly, Miss Yuelletta Ralston and Miss Mabel Hopkins attended a dinner meeting of the chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma society, held at Carrollton, with Miss Elizabeth Bull as hostess.

The business session was presided over by the president, Miss Ralston. Miss Lena Pearl Bernes of Greenfield presented a travelogue, emphasizing what she felt should be taught concerning the American Republic.

The March Fellowship supper will be held in the Church of Christ Wednesday, March 16. The high school girls' class is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bethel of East St. Louis were week-end guests of Mrs. Bethel's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Israel. They were accompanied home by her father, David Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Hopkins have returned from a week's visit with friends in Chicago.

DR. COOPER ATTENDS STATE CONVENTION

Dr. T. R. Cooper of Jacksonville was in Chicago last week-end taking part in the 41st annual convention of the Illinois Association of Chiropractors in the Stevens Hotel.

Chiropractors from all parts of the United States attended the three-day scientific meeting which featured a technical essay program and round-table discussions and demonstrations.

POLICE COULD BE BANDITS, COURT RULE

clothesmen just had to investigate when they spotted a young farmer parked with his girl in an unit car. In the chase that ensued, they got pushed off the running board of the automobile.

In court, the youth explained, "I didn't know they were police. I thought they were bandits."

Good enough said the court. Charged with assaulting and injuring the detective, he was acquitted.

A SAFETY CHECK MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE

POP Goes the QUEEN

By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

THELMA LOOMIS turned her spotlight up on the timber archway and read the twig letters carefully. Then she clicked off the spot and urged the car forward up the curved driveway. The Bar C Ranch house was dark, a somber bulk in silver moonlight. She braked the automobile in front of the door. On the parking lot were two cars—a convertible coupe and a gray sedan.

Miss Loomis moved quickly. From her big plain purse, she dug out a snub-nosed silver revolver. Expertly, she flipped the cylinder out and examined the shiny brass shells protruding from every socket. Satisfied, she eased out of the car and stuck the revolver in the wide belt of her policeman uniform.

Her flashlight beam probed over the other two cars, then swung back to the gloomy house. Thelma Loomis walked the length of the low porch slowly, her practiced feet making only the faintest noise on the tile. Above her hung dark stalactites of bristles and branding irons. Nothing stirred.

"Uh-huh," she murmured and clucked her tongue thoughtfully. Ignoring the brass knocker, she punched the button beside the door and stood listening to the distant loneliness of chiming. When the last tone had died, she tried the latch. The heavy door swung away from her on oiled hinges. Her flashlight cut a round hole into the blackness beyond. Lightly, she stepped after it and closed the door behind her.

THERE wasn't a soul in the house. Thelma Loomis was ready to stake her professional reputation on that.

But somewhere there had to be people. The evidence of the two cars pointed that way. Of course, Lieutenant Lay might have been wrong about Robottom.

She opened the back door and let herself out into a little patio, where galvanized-iron trash cans and an electric garbage disposer kept silent vigil. Outdoors was brighter than ever after the inky interior of the ranch house.

Miss Loomis went around the corner and headed for the higher boxlike building a hundred yards away. Suddenly, she stopped short, her hand fumbling for the snub-nosed revolver. Midway between the house and the other structure, something dark huddled on the ground, something that might have been a man. A darker blob crouched beside it.

"Good grief!" she ejaculated. The second shadow had moved. Thelma Loomis was staring at the outline of a huge cat, its ears erect, its eyes gleaming brightly at her. Her hand shaking, she tried to level the muzzle of her .32 at the giant animal.

"You nearly surprised me," the cat purred. "Not quite. Nearly."

Miss Loomis took a firm grip on herself to keep from breaking and running. She forced her legs to carry her forward, up to the cat.

"Nice kitty," she said unsteadily. The cat stood up on its hind legs and stretched.

MOONLIGHT poured over the face of Faye Jordan and the blonde woman began to understand the cat disguise. She had forgotten that she, too, was in costume. Her nerves unwound slightly and she chuckled softly.

"You're a policeman," Faye Jordan remarked.

"That's right," Thelma Loomis felt her smile slackening as she scanned the other, the unmoving shadow, with professional interest. "You certainly surprised me. Both of you."

"It's pretty fur, don't you think?" Faye said and preened the woolly material of her costume contentedly. "It zips down the back so I can get out. But I don't went to get out. I want to wear it all the time."

The other woman kneeled on the sandy ground and looked at the man huddled there.

The dark hawk face was relaxed and babyish. The man's head was lopsided with swelling under one half of the mussed silver hair. By Sagmon Robottom's ear rested a discarded stirrup iron. Robottom's chest rose and sank regularly and an eyelid twitched. "He didn't believe I was a cat," Faye crouched on the stable floor. Her mouth contracted viciously but the rest of her face was puzzled. "I think he said I mustn't use my claws. I don't like people who order me around."

"Would you like to go for a ride?" Thelma Loomis suggested soothingly. "Just the three of us. I know somebody you'd like to talk to, Faye. A man."

"Oh, that's a good idea," Faye bobbed her head excitedly. "I like to talk to men!"

MR. TRIM howled with laughter. His mouthful of irregular teeth was a wide circle and his shoulders shook. But the sound was thin, not carrying far enough to spawn an echo from the rock walls.

He stopped suddenly. "Shock can certainly produce a variety of comical expressions," Trim said with a final chuckle. "And yours rank with the finest in my collection. First, however—" his voice turned sharper "—gently toss that 45 back to me, Conover."

John Henry made his paralyzed hand reach for it.

"Gently. Not that I trusted you with a loaded gun—but, on the other hand, you might now be tempted to club me with it."

Carefully, John Henry lobbed the automatic to the other man. Trim snatched it deftly from the air and put it in his belt. Without shifting his gaze, he pounded his wooden pistol down sharply on the saddle horn. The painted toy shell shattered. He peeled the broken pieces from around a short black revolver and hung them to the canyon floor.

"No need for masquerade any longer, is there?" he commented. (To Be Continued)

"Refugee" Party Formed In Own Country

Berlin—(P)—The latest phenomenon in this scrambled city is the political party in exile in its own country.

This incongruity developed when a group of leaders of the Liberal-Democratic Party of the surrounding Russian zone turned up as refugees in the western-occupied sectors of Berlin.

They were proven refugees from Communist pressure behind the Iron Curtain. The Russian-controlled press denounced them as "reactionaries."

The liberal-democratic refugees—part of a flood from the Russian zone that has been averaging about one-hundred per day here—set up what is called the "free representation of the eastern zone Liberal-Democratic Party (LDP)."

The group was headed by Dr. Schaeffer, formerly deputy party chairman in the state of Mecklenburg.

Here the Russian zone exiles were greeted and aided by western Berlin's Independent Liberal-Democratic Party (lately renamed the "Free Democrats"). This group split from the Russian zone party two years ago.

This party is regarded as rightist in Russian-occupied eastern Germany because one of its main tenets is respect for the rights of private ownership.

Germans Ignore Civil Rights

Berlin—(P)—A U. S. Military Government investigation in the American zone state of Wuertemberg-Baden discloses that of 10,631 house searches carried out by German police in a six-months period all but 81 were made without warrants.

Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, director of Military Government's Civil Administration Division, says:

"Most of the Germans whose homes were searched were not even aware of their rights under the state constitution."

"The German state constitutions in the U. S. zone contain satisfactory provisions for civil rights and civil liberties. These provisions must be enforced by the vigilance of an informed German public opinion if they are to be worth more than the paper they are written on."

Dr. Litchfield says "the police were not to blame so much in these cases as the individuals who let them in. An individual cannot expect to have his rights respected if he himself is not aware of them, or if he does not show himself ready to maintain his lawful rights in cooperation with his fellow citizens or, if need be alone."

Reds To Hunt Live Sables

Moscow—(P)—Some Russian sables are to receive free airplane rides this winter.

Tass reported recently that these famous fur-bearers will be reintroduced to areas from which they were exterminated by over-trapping before the Revolution.

Live sables will be caught in the Tugur River basin and transported by plane to neighboring river valleys where it is expected that they will thrive in the future.

Catching live sables will demand the utmost skill. Trappers will use net traps and also trace sables to trees from which they will drive them into traps by smoking them out.

The society plans an annual "Franz Lehar Week" featuring works of the man who became famous with "The Merry Widow." He died Nov. 24, 1948.

EMPORIUM

OCTOPUS, EAGLE FEATURE ESCAPE STORIES

Moscow—(P)—Two stories have been reported here recently of narrow escapes by Russians from an octopus and an eagle.

A Tass dispatch from Sakhalinski told how one diver, Nikolai Chrednikov, got entangled with the octopus and fought him under water for three hours.

He had gone below removing a motor from a sunken ship when, according to the message, a large octopus grabbed his feet. For three hours he struggled to get away. He was not successful until another diver, Yakov Karpenko, came to his aid.

Karpenko was also entwined by the octopus, but by now the second diver was slashing out with a large knife. He fought his way to Chrednikov and freed him enough so he could get at his knife. Then the two of them finished the octopus.

The second story was a Tass dispatch from Nikopol. It related how hunter Andrei Azgrynni, while hunting ducks, fired at a 50-pound eagle and wounded him.

Although wounded the eagle attacked the duck hunter, according to the dispatch, started to claw his gun. Again a friend came to the rescue. Together they killed the bird. It had a wing spread of about eight feet.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, March 14 — (AP) — Hogs were steady to 25 cents lower today and cattle steady to 50 cents less. But lambs rose another 25 cents and forged a new March record high of $29 a hundred pounds.

Most good and choice barrows and gilts brought $17.75 to $21.50. The top was $21.75, paid sparingly. Clearance was good.

Choice steers ranged from $27.50 to $27.75, the top. Medium to low-choice steers took $22 to $25.50; heifers topped at $26.75 for high-choice quality. This was the highest paid for the steers since Jan. 24 when $27 was the best figure. Medium to low-choice heifers made $21.50 to $25.25. Beef cows topped at $19.50, sausage bulls at $23, and vealers at $28. Good grade feeding steers sold at $23.50.

Most good and choice wooled lambs sold at one price, $28.75, while ewes were too scarce to make an adequate market test.

Receipts on sale included 9,000 hogs, 13,000 cattle, 500 calves, and 2,500 sheep.

GRAINS, SOYBEANS RECOVER AFTER EARLIER DIPS

Chicago, March 14. — (AP) — Grains sank at the start and then spent the rest of the day inching upward on the Board of Trade today. The slow upward climb brought some deliveries, particularly in oats, above last Saturday's close.

Selling at the start was based on heavy receipts of cash grain at leading markets. This was particularly true of wheat, where eight southwestern markets had 1,560 cars compared with 368 cars a year ago. Wheat later rallied on reports of improved domestic flour business.

Soybeans recovered fairly well from early losses despite a downturn in vegetable oil prices. Oats showed underlying firmness from the start with a good deal of short-covering in the May delivery.

Receipts were: wheat 11 cars, corn 328, oats 42 and soybeans 15.

Wheat closed 1-1/4 lower, May $2.14-1/4; corn was 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, May $1.29-1/2 to $1.28; oats were 1-1/2 higher, May $1.25; soybeans were 1-1/2 lower, March $2.28-1/2 to $2.29, and lard was 15 to 22 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $12.27.

POLAND PUSHES PORT PLANS.
Swinoujscie, Poland. — (AP) — Poles are building Nazi Germany's submarine base of Swinemunde into a great hub for east-west traffic. The government intends to spend over $675,000 this year in rebuilding this war-damaged port and expanding facilities for handling trade.

New York Stock Market

New York, March 14 — (AP) — Prices pursued a wavering course today in the stock market.

Few issues got very far away from their previous close, adding or subtracting an eighth at a time.

The volume of trading was fair to the rate of 800,000 shares for the entire day. On Friday the volume was 1,070,000.

Oils stood above the rest of the market with gains that went over 2 points at times before falling back under profit taking.

Rails moved up slightly from mid-day lows but remained narrowly mixed. Steels, motors, metals and chemicals were irregularly mixed.

Steels appeared uninfluenced by another new high operating rate this week estimated by the American Iron and Steel Institute to produce 1,880,400 tons of ingots and castings.

The institute said member companies gave no indication yet of being hampered by the two-week coal shutdown, although a Bethlehem Steel spokesman said future production might be affected.

Tending higher were Standard Oil (N.J.), Skelly Oil and Standard Oil of California.

On the downside were Illinois Central, Electric Power & Light, Owens-Illinois, Douglas, Boeing, Goodrich, General Electric, International Paper and Nickel Plate.

Bonds were quiet with prices narrowly mixed. U. S. governments in the over-the-counter market were unchanged.

St. Louis, Kentucky, Utah Fall In National Invitational Tourney

New York, March 14—(AP)—Bowling Green of Ohio knocked out defending champion St. Louis University, 80 to 74, tonight to complete a thorough rout of favorites in the quarter-finals of the national invitational basketball tournament.

Heavily favored Kentucky and two other seeded entrants—Western Kentucky and Utah—also were sent shuffling to the sidelines in the wild one-day session in the history of the Madison Square Garden cage fixture.

Cole Dudley, a Bowling Green substitute, scored five points on two field goals and a free throw in the final two minutes to break the backs of the second-seeded Billikens and paved the way for an exclusive semifinal in Madison Square Garden—12,592 for the evening session and 15,587 for the matinee—were left limp and gasping by the rapid-fire series of upshots that fell one upon the other.

Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 college quintet, bowed to Loyola of Chicago, which got into the meet on a rancid check, 67 to 56.

The Wildcats, seeded first in the meet, were favored to complete the first grand slam of basketball by winning both the invitational and the NCAA.

Bradley University, the pride of Peoria, Ill., took the measure of fourth-seeded Western Kentucky, 95 to 86, in a fast, record-breaking opener.

San Francisco put skids under Utah, No. 3 in the seedings 64-63, on Frank Kazura's heart-stopping field goal in the last five seconds of play.

So a phalanx of giant killers goes into Thursday's semi-finals with Bradley meeting Loyola and Bowling Green facing San Francisco.

It was the defeat of Kentucky by underdog Loyola that stunned the crowd.

AAU Tournament Field Reduced To Ten Teams

Oklahoma City, March 14—(AP)—AAU basketball's big guns start their heavy firing today in the 42nd annual tournament after Sunday's opening battles which sliced 10 teams from the original field of 44.

Six of eight seeded teams, including the defending champion Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., and the Oakland Bantams, determined tournament threats, are scheduled for action.

The Oilers, seven-times winners of the big event, and champions for the last six years, go against the Amarillo Tex. Plovers in the first game of a night session. The Bantams will meet the Lackland War Hawks from San Antonio immediately afterward.

Other seeded outfits slated for their first tourney action are the Seattle, Wash., Alpines, Denver Chevrolets, Los Angeles Police and Peoria Caterpillars.

The Alpines face the Greenville, Tex., Jaycees, Denver tackles, Nebraska Wesleyan college, the Police five meets the Sioux City, Ia., Jammers, and the Caterpillars take on the Warrensburg, Mo., Riggers.

Yesterday's results included: St. Adelbert's Catholic club, Eliza, both, N. J., 70, Des Moines Millers 60 (shreveport, La., Graysons 63, Mount Morris, Ill., Kable Kolts 53, Freeport, Ill., Legion 49, Desure's Oasis, Los Angeles, 39.

Braves Blank Cards 5-0 In Citrus

Bradenton, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Boston's National League champion Braves won their first Citrus Circuit exhibition in three games today by blanking the St. Louis Cardinals 5-0.

The tribe, limited to two hits yesterday by Brooklyn's Dodgers, broke out with 11 safeties today while Vern Bickford and left-hander Glenn Elliott doled out five to the Cards who lost their third consecutive game.

Cardinal catcher Del Rice suffered a dislocated thumb in the eighth as he tried to break up a double play at second base.

Ben Hogan Leaves Hospital Bed For First Time

El Paso, Texas, March 14—(AP)—Bantam Ben Hogan left his hospital bed for the first time today.

The tiny golfing ace was moved to a wheel chair late this afternoon and spent nearly 30 minutes sitting in the sun.

His wife, Valerie, said she was "overjoyed" with the improvement. Ben has shown, and added that her husband's spirits were excellent.

Hogan has been in Hotel Dieu (a hospital) since Feb. 2, when he was seriously injured in a car-bus crash on highway 80 near Van Horn, Tex. On March 3 he underwent an operation for a serious blood clot condition.

Jerseyville Man Heads Parks In Central Illinois

Jerseyville—William Watts of this city has been appointed as supervisor of Illinois state parks in this district of Central Illinois, and has assumed charge of his duties.

The work involves the supervising of Illinois' largest park, Pere Marquette State Park at Grafton, the Cahokia Mounds State Park and the Grand Marais Park in the East St. Louis locality.

Watts will work under the direction of Ray Hubbs, the new state superintendent of parks, and the program being planned for the year ahead calls for a constructive one of expanding park facilities for the accommodation of the public.

Pere Marquette state park is being developed more and more as a center for juvenile groups and their annual special activities. Various boys and girl organizations have selected this park the past few years for annual encampments, and Watts stated Saturday afternoon that he plans to offer every encouragement for the use of the park for juvenile projects.

"This part of the State of Illinois is rich in historical lore," Watts stated, "it was here that the famous explorer, Father Marquette and his associates first landed on Illinois soil. There are numerous Indian legends woven about the area, and the district is rich in the relics of the First Americans."

Pop's Tonic To The Bostonians

Champaign, Ill., March 14—(AP)—When a Bostonian drinks "tonic," he's turning bottoms up on a concoction we call "pop" in Illinois.

Such variations in American language are subject of a nationwide study supported by the Linguistic Society of American, Modern Language Association, and the University of Michigan.

The University of Illinois will participate in the study through a faculty appointment announced today. Haven I. McDavid, Jr., an outstanding field worker in the linguistic geography of the nation, will come to Illinois Sept. 1. He will teach a course in American language and will study the language of Illinois and nearby Indiana areas for the "linguistic atlas of the north central states."

Meeting Of Cage Managers Called

Paul Hartman, director of the Jacksonville YMCA, has issued a directive calling a meeting of the managers of teams which were entered in the Independent basketball tournament last week.

The managers, or appointed representatives, will meet this evening in the YMCA. Plans for refunding a portion of the entry fee placed on the cage entries in the past tourney will be moved on Managers are also requested to be prepared to discuss the possible formation of an independent basketball league in Jacksonville next winter.

George VI Making Normal Progress

London, March 14—(AP)—King George VI is making normal progress toward recovery.

His physicians visited Buckingham palace tonight. They issued no official statement, but it was understood the king's condition was satisfactory.

The King underwent a delicate nerve operation last Saturday to improve the blood circulation in his right leg.

Ocean Flier Goes On Trial As Spy

Paris, March 14—(AP)—Pioneer ocean flier Diodonne Coste went on trial today as a spy. He was charged with having been one of the "best paid" agents of German counter-intelligence, working in the United States during World War II.

Coste, who with Maurice Bellonte made the first east-west flight over the Atlantic in 1930, denied he returned to the U. S. 13 years later to spy for Germany.

The defendant termed the charges against him "entirely false."

Organized Baseball Will Be Called To Court To Defend Suspensions

New York, March 14—(AP)—Organized baseball will be called into Federal Court tomorrow to defend its action in suspending three former major league players for jumping to the Mexican League.

Federal Judge Edward Conger issued an order today directing leaders of the national game to show cause at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow why Danny Gardella, former New York Giants outfielder, should not be reinstated immediately.

Scheduled for hearing at the same time is an application by Max Lanier and Fred Martin, former St. Louis Cardinals pitchers, for a temporary order directing their reinstatement.

In their application, filed a week ago, Lanier and Martin also ask that organized baseball be directed to permit them to sign contracts which do not contain a reserve or termination clause.

The three players are among several who were banned from professional baseball for five years by Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler after they left their clubs in 1946 to play in Mexico.

In the action which will be heard tomorrow, all three are asking for their return to baseball pending determination of damage suits totaling $2,800,000.

The suits attack the reserve clause—that portion of every baseball contract which binds a player to one club until he is sold, traded or released—as a violation of the anti-trust laws.

Defendants in the suits brought by Lanier and Martin are Chandler, president of the National League, president Will Harridge, of the American League, president George Trautman of the National Association of Minor Leagues and all 16 major league clubs.

Lanier has asked damages of $1,500,000 and Martin $1,000,000. They accused baseball of being a monopoly and are seeking permanent injunctions against contracts containing the reserve clause and against keeping them on the ineligible list.

Gardella, seeking damages of $300,000, directed his suit against Chandler, Frick, Harridge and Trautman but only one major league team—the New York Giants.

He also based his application for reinstatement of the charge that baseball is a monopoly and violates the anti-trust laws because of the reserve clause and various agreements between clubs.

Training Camp Notes

Phoenix, Ariz., March 14—(AP)—Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants is hinting about a deal for a pitcher.

He said yesterday Gail Henley, rookie outfielder, has a good chance of sticking with the club. This would give the Giants a chance to trade Bobby Thomson, who has been troubled with a sore arm.

Henley whacked out two hits yesterday as the Giants whipped the Cleveland Indians, 7-4. The Indians' Bob Feller pitched three frames, giving up seven safeties.

Miami, March 14—(AP)—Rookie Cal Abrams' healthy hitting is one of the highlights of the Brooklyn Dodgers' spring training.

The Brooklyn outfielder laced out four of the Dodgers' nine hits yesterday—including a homer and a grounds-out double—as Brooklyn won their second straight from the Boston Braves, 6-0. Johnny Nain, Boston's ace hurler was the victim.

Tampa, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Rumors involving the possible swap of third baseman Grady Hatton to the Brooklyn Dodgers, strengthened today after Ray Blades, Dodger coach, showed up at the Cincinnati camp here. Warren Giles, Reds' president, previously had talked with Branch Rickey by telephone. The Reds are in the market for a starting pitcher and an established big league outfielder.

Sarasota, Fla., March 14—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox travel to St. Petersburg today to meet the New York Yankees in a Grapefruit league contest.

Sox Manager Joe McCarthy plans to send right hand pitcher Jack Kramer against the Yanks. Kramer's lifetime mark against the New York club is 13 wins and 11 losses in regular season play. Last year he defeated the New Yorkers five times in succession.

Cleatwater, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Granville Hamner, who is rapidly taking charge of shortstop matters for the Philadelphia Phillies, looks like a man to be feared at the plate.

In two exhibition games against the Detroit Tigers, Hamner has pounded out five hits in nine times at bat. Yesterday, Granny had two singles as the Phils turned back the Tigers, 3-0.

Los Angeles, March 14—(AP)—Mort Cooper will make his first appearance in a comeback project today by taking the hill for a three-inning pitching stint for the Chicago Cubs against the St. Louis Browns.

Cooper, who weighed 248 pounds in his last National League game, is now barely above 200.

Pesky Sparks Red Sox To 4-1 Win Over Yankees

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Johnny Pesky banged out three hits, including two doubles, and drove in two runs today to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 4-1 victory over the New York Yankees. A crowd of 5,006 saw the Sox snap New York's two-game winning streak.

Lefty Mickey Harris blanked the Yanks without a hit in the three middle innings to get credit for the victory.

Joe Page, Yankee southpaw relief hurler, was charged with the loss. Boston (A) ... 010 010 002—4 6 2 New York (A) ... 100 000 000—1 7 2 Kramer, Harris (4), Kinker (7) and Batts; Hood, Page (4), Madison (7) and Houk.

Chicago Cubs Vote To Retain Reserve Clause In Contract

Los Angeles, March 14—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs voted unanimously today to retain the reserve clause in players' contracts.

Phil Cavarretta, acting as spokesman for the team, said they found no fault in the clause which binds players to one club from season to season.

"We think the clause is absolutely necessary if baseball is to continue as it has all this time," Cavarretta said. "The owners have certainly been fair with the majority of ball players."

The Cubs were the third National league team to vote in favor of retaining the reserve clause. The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals previously held player polls at the request of Dixie Walker, player representative for the National league.

Virginia Council Gives Camp Site To Boy Scouts

Virginia—The Virginia city council has turned over a portion of the land on the north side of the waterworks to the Boy Scouts of this community. This is to be a permanent campsite and will be the center of scouting activities, according to scout officials here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald gave a buffet supper Saturday evening honoring Miss Rosemary Fair and Sidney Campbell, who will be married March 18.

Twenty-six guests were all attended. Out of town guests were Mrs. P. McClinick, Marie Fogarty and Vernon Shippe, of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Johnson, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darland of Decatur.

The Virginia Catholic church is giving a ham supper in the hall over Consumers Service building on Thursday evening. Serving begins at 5 p.m.

The Virginia male quartet is making an appearance at the Arenzville Community club on Monday night. George McDonald, William Apple, Les Tanner and John Schaffer make up this quartet.

Committee Formed To 'Free Russia'

New York, March 14—(AP)—A committee dedicated to "liberating Russia from the Communist dictatorship" has been formed by 25 Russian expatriates, including Alexander F. Kereny.

Kereny, premier of the provisional government of Russia following the overthrow of the Czar in 1917, led Russia 30 years ago after the short-lived Republic was deposed.

The new group, organized yesterday, said it seeks the establishment of "a free and genuinely Democratic Russia." It adopted the name "Union for the Liberation of the People of Russia."

Reds To Stage War Games In Germany

Berlin, March 14—(AP)—The Red army in Germany is planning its greatest spring maneuvers since the war. It was reported in Berlin today.

The western-licensed German press said the Russians would stage garrison war games in eastern Germany including river crossings and mock ground-air combined offensives.

Library Chief Appointed

Springfield, Ill., March 14—(AP)—Miss Laura C. Libutski today was appointed chief of the Illinois State Library Extension services.

She has been on the library staff since April, 1948. She formerly was librarian of the Calumet City public library and assistant librarian at North Central college, Naperville.

BRITISH ZONE POLICE REPORT IS GOOD

Hamburg, Germany—(AP)—Germanians of the British zone are becoming themselves better, reported the public safety branch of the British control commission.

The police attributed the improvement to the currency reform last year which gave the Germans more things to buy in the shops and substantially reduced the black market.

The total crime figure for Jan. 1948 was 101,570. By the end of the year this had been dropped to 61,268.

Gay Kintner's Decatur Prep Five Is Definite Threat For Prep Crown

Champaign, Ill., March 14—(AP)—When you're scanning the field in the 16 team state finals, don't overlook Nashville, Decatur and Hillsboro as darkhorse possibilities for the Prep basketball title.

Decatur competes in the upper bracket along with the top two crown choices—Elgin and Mt. Vernon. That means Coach Gay Kintner's Reds have a rough road to travel.

But in the lower grouping at Champaign next Thursday, Nashville's Rangy Hornets and Hillsboro expect to find the going a bit easier.

One of the shrewdest heads in Illinois high school cage circles will be directing Decatur's bid. Coach Kintner's hand will be worth plenty when the chips are down.

The Decatur mentor is taking his ninth quintet to the finals in 21 years. He has bagged three state championships and is shooting for a record fourth.

Decatur Quint Plenty Tall

The current edition dropped eight decisions in regularly scheduled play. Not until they waded into their own sectional did the Reds reach peak form. They cut down a good Clinton club 62-39, and then capped the prize with a 54-29 rout of Mt. Pleasant.

With three lads at or above the six foot mark, Decatur has enough height. Center Dave Richardson and forward Alan Anderson are 6-4. The team rebounds well, can hit

Cary Middlecoff, Jim Ferrier Win Four-Ball Meet

Miami, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Cary Middlecoff and Jim Ferrier shattered virtually every record established in the 24-year history of the event yesterday when they defeated Skip Alexander and Pete Cooper 9 and 8 in the finals of Miami's $10,000 international Four Ball golf tournament.

Dr. Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., and Ferrier, veteran San Francisco professional, shot 16 under par for the 28 holes it took to beat Alexander, Southern Pines, N. C., and Cooper, Ponte Verda, Fla.

They were the first team to win the grueling 144-hole contest two consecutive years.

Each won $1,250 first money. Alexander and Cooper each won $750 second money.

Browns Beat Cubs In Tenth 12-11

Los Angeles, March 14—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns, bolstered by Ken Woods' three-run homer in the ninth, handed the Chicago Cubs their third straight licking today by an extra-inning 12-11 count.

Woods' smash put the Browns ahead 11-9, but the Cubs tied the score in the bottom half with the aid of Al Walker's homer and a pinch single by Forrest Burgess.

Paul Lehner's triple—his fifth hit of the day—and an outfield fly gave the Browns victory in the 10th.

St. Louis (A) 013 012 004—12 16 0 Chicago (N) 241 020 001—11 15 2 Bickhaus, Medlinger (2), Savage (6) and Moss; Cooper, Lade (3), Hamner (7), Doernick (10) and Schefling, Walker (10).

Phillies Take 4-3 Win Over Senators

Orlando, Fla., March 14—(AP)—Eddie Waitkus' ninth-inning home run with one aboard lifted the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators here today. It was the Phillies' third straight exhibition game win.

Waitkus' smash over the right field fence with Gran Hamner on first staked the Phillies to a 4-2 lead. Waitkus collected two singles in addition to his homer.

Phils ... 010 100 002—4 11 1 Senators ... 001 000 101—3 7 2 Batteries—Phils: Trinkle, Bicknell (4), Konstanty (8) and Silverstri, Seminick (8). Senators: Scarborough, Thompson (4) and Masterson (7) and Evans, Okie (7).

MARIE CHAPDELAIN FILM PLANNED

Vienna—(AP)—Marc Allegret, noted French movie producer, has arrived at Intubruck to shoot the exterior shots for his new film "Marie Chapdelaine," based on the novel of Louis Hemon.

LUKEMAN MOTOR CO.
416 W. State

The hospital association was given permission to make water connections at Caldwell street, and sewer connections at Caldwell street, running both lines to the building site three-tenths of a mile west of the city limits on Walnut street.

Prompt action of the council in approving plans for water and sewer extensions to be constructed by the hospital added impetus to the hospital campaign now in progress. Water and sewer facilities are necessary at the site before general building activities get under way.

Council Hears Trustees

M. R. Range, president of the Passavant hospital board of trustees; Lee Sullivan and Claude Gustine attended the council session to present the matter of obtaining facilities for the new hospital. Attorney W. R. Bellatti explained the requirements, which have already been outlined by engineers.

He said the hospital association proposes to build a six inch water main and 10 inch sanitary sewer to connect with the city systems at the nearest point.

Mayor Hoagland said he knew the council was heartily in favor of speeding up the project, and recommended that the proposal be granted and an agreement entered into with the hospital association. City Attorney Fay read a resolution approving plans for extension of water and sewer lines to the new hospital, after which it passed unanimously on motion of Alderman Henderson, seconded by Alderman Weaver.

To Start 4-H Camp
Development of the new Western Illinois 4-H camp on the shore of Lake Jacksonville, several miles southeast of the city, will begin this summer, according to announcement by Alderman Kelly. He reported that the lease for a 170 acre tract has been signed by association officials, and returned to the city.

Selection of the Lake Jacksonville camp site followed several months' consideration of numerous probable sites by 4-H officials. Permanent improvements will be put up at the camp within the next two years at a cost of $100,000 or more.

The construction of six new lockers for the police department was reported by Alderman Flynn of the city hall committee.

To Buy Street Oil
Mayor Hoagland announced that the time has come to prepare for the annual street oiling program, and recommended that the city advertise for street oil.

Alderman Henderson moved, seconded by Alderman Flynn, that bids for 100,000 gallons of oil be called for April 4. The motion carried.

After considering the problem of carpenters who have tools to load and unload while working in the business district, Alderman Kelly announced that a plan for "sacking" parking meters has been worked out. The city has procured several canvas sacks with zippers, which will be placed over the meters where carpenters' cars are parked. The drivers of these work cars will pay 40 cents per day for the privilege of parking, with a $1 deposit to insure the return of the sack.

Councilmen were enthusiastic over the plan which is expected to remove a problem that had confronted meter checkers for some time. The plan will be effective today.

Mayor Hoagland reported that despite numerous warnings, Wabash freight train crews continue at frequent intervals to block crossings for long periods of time. He recommended to the council that action be taken in the nature of arrests, and that such arrests continue as long as crews permit the blocking of crossings in excess of the time allowed by law.

No Temporary Measure
The council decided to instruct the police department to make arrests. "This is not something for a day or week, but now on," the mayor stated.

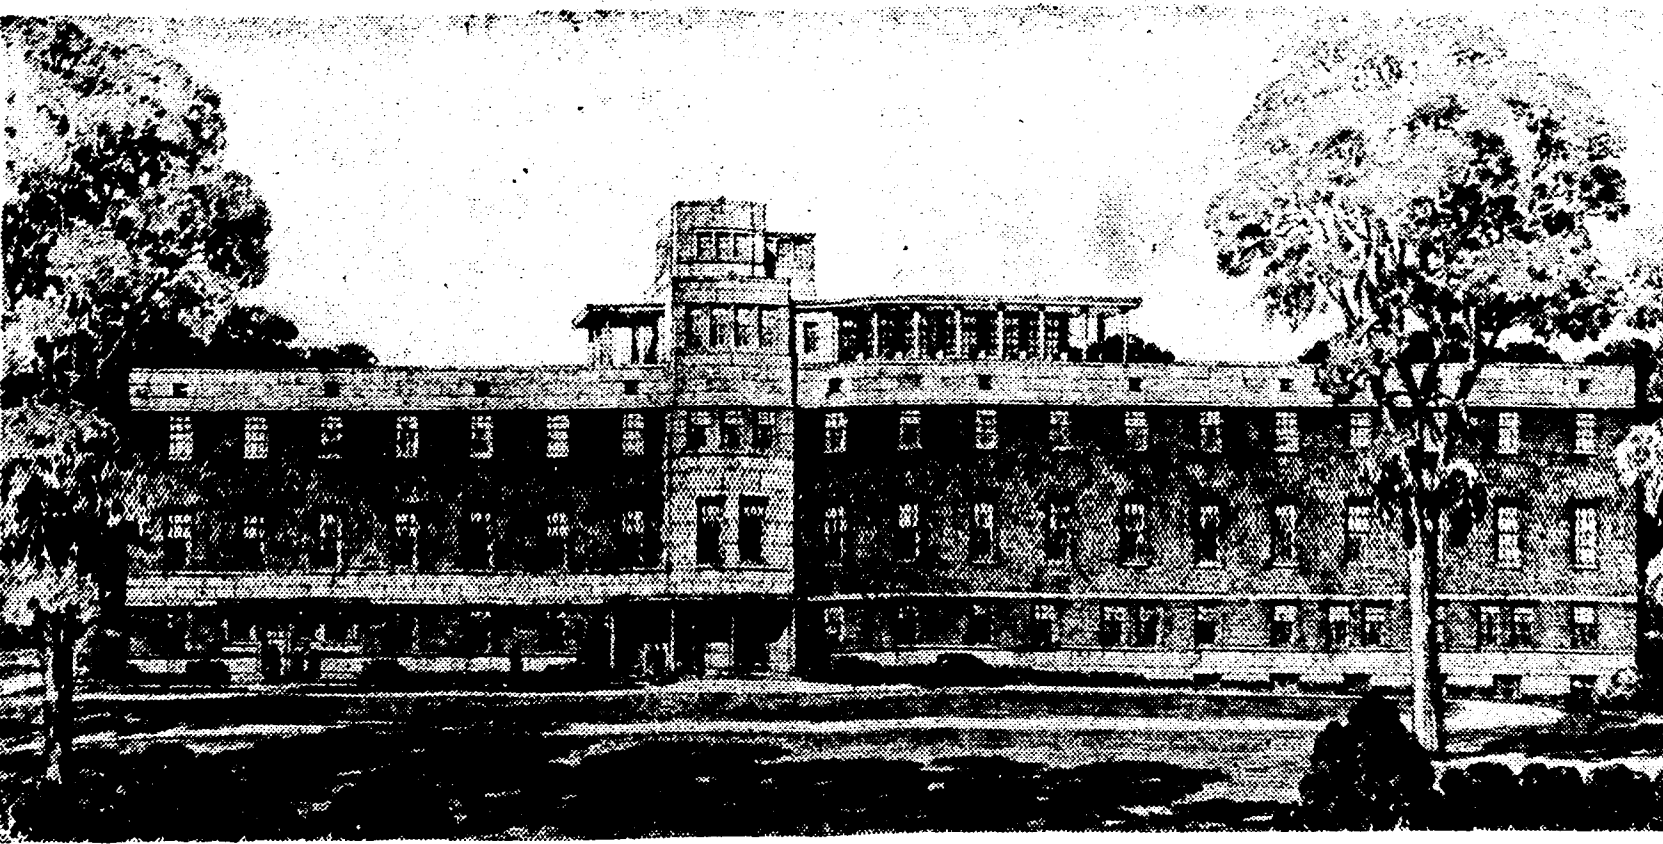

City Clerk Phillips read announcement of a water treatment operators' short course to be held during the week of March 21 at the University of Illinois. The mayor referred the letter to the water committee to determine whether one or more employees of the filtration plant should attend the course.

As a safety measure, the council voted on motion of Alderman Kelly, seconded by Alderman Reid, to instruct night shift operators at the sewer and water plants to make hourly telephone calls to the police department.

MORGAN RED CROSS DIRECTORS TO MEET
Directors of the Morgan County Red Cross chapter will meet at 7:30 tonight at the chapter office on 203 E. Morgan street, according to an announcement made by Dr. Malcolm Stewart, chairman.

Fund campaign reports will be given and directors will make their reports. All chairmen are urged to be present.

This Building Will Rise From Your Contributions

Shown above is the artist's conception of the proposed Passavant Memorial Area hospital, which can be made possible only through the generous contributions of the residents of this area.

Federal and state grants amounting to $1,400,000 have been voted for the new hospital. In order to insure getting these grants, the residents of this area are asked for an additional $700,000, bringing the total hospital fund to $2,100,000. Of the local portion of the fund, $300,000 has already been secured. This leaves a balance of $400,000 which must be raised in this area during the campaign.

The 140 bed hospital will have three floors, plus a solarium. It will be located one quarter mile west of the city limits on Route 104.

Clio Aid Society Pledges Donation To Passavant Fund

Mrs. Earl Myers was hostess to the Clio Aid society of the Litterberry Christian church at its regular meeting Thursday.

Attending were 16 members and five guests. Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. John Maul and son, Roy, JoAnn Petefish and Betty Sue Myers.

The group voted a pledge to the Passavant Memorial hospital fund. Plans were made to hold a market April 9, under the direction of Mrs. Logan Parry and Mrs. Orville Jokisch.

Mrs. Logan Parry, program chairman, announced the discussion of "James E. West, Builder of Men." Papers were read by Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Albert Roach. Mrs. Coy Stice, president, presided. Prayer was offered by Lora Petefish.

The next meeting will be conducted at Hamilton's cafe, with Mrs. Frank Dinwiddie as hostess.

Betty Lou Brown And L. R. Farmer Married Sunday

Winchester—Miss Betty Lou Brown, daughter of Mrs. Georgia Brown, of Winchester and Lonnie Ray Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Farmer, of Winchester, were married Sunday, March 13, at 3 p.m. at the home of the bride's mother.

The Rev. Lonnie Moore of Drake, Ill., performed the simple ceremony.

Miss Betty Lou Farmer, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Richard Dale Brown, brother of the bride was best man.

The bride was dressed in a two-piece blue wool street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of red carnations. The maid of honor wore a tan street length dress with a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the home of the groom's parents.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Winchester Community high school with the class of 1947. The bride has been employed at Roosa's cafe and the groom at Dunham's garage. Those attending the wedding included the immediate families, Mrs. Ida Benson of Jacksonville, a great aunt of the bride, and the Rev. and Mrs. Lonnie Moore of Drake, aunt and uncle of the groom.

Rites Monday For Mrs. T. J. Wilson

Funeral services for Mrs. T. J. Wilson were held Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church, with the Rev. Harold Craig as officiant. Burial will be at Crawford, Nebraska.

Waverly Voters O. K. $400,000 Bond Issue

Waverly—Four proposals concerned with the building of a new grade school building in Waverly were approved by comfortable margins Monday by the 1,174 residents of community unit school district No. 6 who voted in the special election.

The unofficial vote was:
Proposition No. 1—Authorizing the board of education to purchase a site upon which to build a new school house: Yes, 885; No, 444.

Proposition No. 2—Authorizing the board of education to build a new school house: Yes, 685; No, 447.

Proposition No. 3—Authorizing the board of education to issue bonds of district No. 6 in the amount of $400,000, bonds to bear interest of not more than 3% and payable semi-annually over 20 years: Yes, 677; No, 445.

Proposition No. 4—To allow an additional indebtedness of 2½% for constructing and equipping school buildings: Yes, 611; No, 395.

Safety Pin 100 Years Old; Special Stamp Advocated

By Arthur Edson
Washington, March 14 — (AP) — Goats, without forts and a horse have been suggested as appropriate decorations for our nation's postage stamps, so—

Why not a stamp to honor the safety pin?

This tongue-in-cheek proposal was made today by Maj. James T. DeVoss and James H. Bower, a couple of local philatelists, or stamp lovers.

They point out that it was 100 years ago—on April 10, 1849—that a safety pin patent was issued to Walter Hunt of New York City.

"This invention," says DeVoss and Bower in a joint statement, "achieved worldwide recognition in the fields of social science, art, wash and morality, thus making possible the continued peaceful, untrammelled development of our great nation."

Offhand you'd say the proposal won't get anywhere. But don't be too sure.

The 80th Congress went stamp-happy, authorized 29 special issues. They came out strong for the rooster, the American Turners society, volunteer firemen.

The 81st Congress already threatened the 80th's record. Already it has had resolutions introduced calling for 41 different special stamps.

Here are a few of the suggestions: 100th anniversary of the birth of the Hamletian. (That's the Kentucky Derby of sulky racing.) Bicentennial of the angora goat in the U. S.

160 years of cotton textile manufacturing in this country. Commemorative of the life and services of P. T. Barnum.

80th anniversary of the founding of Abilene, Kans.

Among the subjects presented to the boys was the identification of aircraft through the engine, wing, tail and fuselage. The group planned its meetings through April 25.

All boys from the ages 15-18 are eligible to join.

New Passavant Hospital Fund Workers Launch $400,000 Campaign

More than 200 Jacksonville men and women, confident in their belief that the Jacksonville area will rally generously to the Passavant Memorial Area hospital campaign, began active solicitation Monday at the conclusion of a kick-off meeting at the Dunlap hotel.

With the construction of a $2,100,000 modern hospital as their goal, the workers will contact thousands of residents of Morgan and adjacent counties which will be served by the new hospital.

A minimum of $400,000 is needed immediately to insure $1,400,000 in federal and state grants, thus making possible a new 140 bed hospital which is so urgently needed in this area. The hospital trustees already have $300,000, which was bequeathed for the purpose of a new hospital.

J. Chester Colton, general chairman who presided over the meeting Monday, said that active participation in the campaign "is one of the privileges of a lifetime. No sounder appeal or worthier objective affecting the lives of so many people has ever been before us, and to be a worker for its accomplishment as well as a contributor to its success will give us lasting satisfaction."

"Forward Together"
He continued by saying "We are now joining over divisions of solicitors who are working zealously throughout the area, under the chairmanship of Warren Brockhouse and Lawrence Oxley. Together we are going forward, united to meet this area's greatest need."

Enthusiastic talks were also given by Harold Gibson, chairman of the men's section of the campaign, and Mrs. Clarence L. Rice, chairman of the women's section, both of whom challenged the members of the organization to cooperation on a scale and plane set by the executive planning committee.

"We are not going out on our own," declared Mr. Gibson, "but as a unit with certain definite goals to accomplish. We are representing a community of fine citizens who will cooperate with us to get this job done."

Pledge Women's Support
Mrs. Rice pledged "the interest and devotion of the women of this community to see that a new Passavant Memorial Hospital becomes a reality."

"Women are probably more sensitive to the need for adequate hospital facilities than men," Mrs. Rice stated, "and as women of this community we are insisting that the conditions which have prevailed shall be corrected and the kind of provision of our security in time of greatest need be established in the form of the new hospital."

The program of canvassing officially got underway Monday. Throughout the course of the campaign citizens and business will be called upon and asked to give and pledge themselves generously.

Social Events
Miss Mary K. Blatt was a weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Dugan.

Robert Clayton visited his family in Marshall, Ill., over the weekend. Mrs. Aline Hainsfurther entertained members of her bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.
